WEDNESDAY, AUG. 28, 1895.

Next Monday is Salesday The continued rain is causing the peaches

A small size cold wave would be appreciated just now.

Our fellow-townsman, Mr B. F. M sss, is still very sick. August is giving us some old-fashioned

The supply of eggs is not equal to the demand in the city.

Cotton is fast climbing to the 8 cents notch. Let'er climb. Miss Mittie Tribble is in Walhalla visiting her cousin, Miss Cora Kay.

Prof. T. O. Kirkpatrick, of Donaldsville, spent Sunday night in Anderson. M. L. Bonham, Esq , went to Greenville yesterday on professional business. There will be services at Roberts Church next Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. G. P. Watson, of this city, visited his brother in Greenwood last week. Miss Hattle M. Leavell, of Newberry, is visiting the family of Dr. D. S. Watson. Mr. James G. O'Donnell, who has been alok for two weeks, is able to be out again. A complete ginning outfit is offered for sale by Mr. C. E. Horton. See advertise-ment.

Miss Annie Dean, of Deans, S. C, is spending several days in the city with relatives. Miss Ida Brock, of Hones Path, is in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. Leila Sul-livan. Next Monday is Labor Day—a national holiday. It will not be observed in Anderson.

Rev. H. T. Smith, of Belton, was in the city Monday and paid his respects to the Buy new rubber rings for fruit jars. Don't use the old ones if you want your canned fruit to keep.

A lot of school desks and blackboards are offered for sale by Miss Maggie Evans Se advertisement. The Easley Messenger of the 22nd says: Mr. James Woodson, near White post office in Anderson County, has built an office in Anderson County, has built an elegant two story dwelling.——If. O. Hendricks, of Brusby Creek Township, Anderson County, is building a two story dwelling which will soon be completed——Rev. Smith has been conducting a meeting at Pisgah Church in Anderson County, since the second Sunday. Much interest has been manifested and several persons have professed conversion. Norman J. McAllister, of Pelzer, has secured a patent on a cotton seed crusher, planter and distributor. If all the men who are now said to be candidates for office remain in the field, next year will be lively.

The South Carolina Presbytery meets at Pendleton on Friday before the second Sunday in September. Reader, if you have a friend who wants to move to a live, progressive town, advise him to come to Anderson. Misses Mattle and Nettie Bowle, of the

Mr. J. W Payne and family. of Greers, S. C., spent last week in Anderson with his brother, Mr. J. M. Payne. Attention is called to the advertisement Attention is called to the advertisement of Patrick Military Institute, which appears in our columns to-day. Organized in 1870, without any endowment and without appealing to denominational predilection, but with faith in the merit of its system of instruction and discipline, and a clear conception of its duties and responsibilities and a faithfulness in the discharge of those duties which counted no sacrifice Col. Hal. Richardson, of Columbia, is spending a few days in the city with his brother in-law, Gen. Bonham. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Graham, of St. Louis, Mo., are in the city this week visit-ing their sister, Mrs. R. C. Webb. Always bear in mind when you want job printing that the INTELLIGENCER office can do your work at very low prices. We are requested to announce that Rev. W. R. Karle will preach at Deans Church next Sunday afternoon, at 4 30 o'clock.

Miss Alma Carrere, one of Charleston's most charming young ladies, is visiting the family of Mr. W. S. Lee of this city. An enthusiastic meeting was held in the Court House last Friday morning, for the purpose of inaugurating a movement to build a new cotton mill at this place J J Fretwell was elected chairman and H. H. waluable contributions to the history of the State, thus derived made him useful as a public officer and very entertaining in conversation. Many The Savanuah River made a rapid rise down about Augusta last week. It did not stay up long and no damage resulted. Watkins secretary of the meeting. R 8. Ligon was called upon to explain the object of the meeting. He stated that upon a conference with a number of the business The new advertisement of B O. Evans & Co. will interest you if you want to secure bargains in shirts. Read carefully what they say. men of the city it had been decided to Mr. J J. Dodd has secured the contract to build a four-room cottage for Mr. E. W. Stewart, on McDuffie street, Just beyond build a new cotton mill here with a capital atock of not less than $250 000, with R. S. Hill at the head of the enterprise and J. Fretwell holding next position. The enterprise was unanimously and heartily indorsed by the meeting. Speeches were made by J. M. Sullivan, R. S. Hill, P. K. McCully, G. E. Prince and M. L. Bonbam. Subscriptions were then called for, and the next the next see of the meeting had been The advance in the iron market has caused a rise in the price of cotton ties.

The advance in the last few days amounts to ten ceuts a bale. though the notice of the meeting had been given only two hours beforehand, $27,100 was subscribed A resolution was adopted making the par value of each share of stock The firm of Cox, Clement & Co., at Belton, has dissolved. Mr. J.T. Cox will continue the business at the old stand. See $50.00. The organization will be effected as soon as 50 per cent. of the $250,000 is There are going to be weddings and weddings in Anderson the coming fall. The signs of the times indicate a regular epidemic of this kind. subscribed. At that time 20 per cent. of the subscriptions will be required to be on a committee to solicit subscriptions, with instructions to appoint as many others as they might think best. The following is the sub-cription committee: R. S. Hill, J. J. Fretwell, H. G. Anderson, F. E. Watkins, W. T. Dean, F. G. Brown, R. S. Ligon, N. O. Farmer, John T. Glenn, L. O. Williford, L. Reed Watson, H. H. Watkins, P. K. McCully, J. J. Major, J. R. Anderson, T. C. Jackson, John M. Glenn, J. S. Fowler, G. E. Prince, S. L. Eskew, John C. Gantt, J. J. Baker, J. M. Sallivan, C. F. Jones and J. D. Maxwell. The success of the mill is assured. Messrs. success of the mill is assured. Messrs. Hill and Fretwell always succeed, and

The total vote in the election in this County on the 20th inst. was 2 246 Mr. J. M. Sullivan heads the ticket with 1764 votes, and Mr. G. E. Prince next, with 1761 By invitation Rev. J. N. H. Summerel, of the Presbyterian Church, preached in the Methodist Church last Sunday night, and was greeted by a very large congrega-

There will be greater competition in buying cotton in Anderson this fall than ever before. Bring your cotton to Ander-son if you want to get the top of the market for it.

city the guests of relatives.

A phrenologist has been canvassing the city the past few days. Occasionally he meets up with a fellow who is willing to hand up a quarter to tell him what was in his head.

Mr. J. H. Growbusky, of Hopewell Township, brought us the first boll of cot-ton for this season last Thursday. Messre. J. C. Hamlin and J. J. Kelly have also

A protracted meeting will begin at Neal's Creek Church on Saturday night before the second Sunday in September. Rev. H. T Smith, the pastor, expects to Le as-slated in the meeting.

Dr. A C. Strickland, who recently pur-chased the home of Rev. J J Neville, on Greenville street. moved there last week.
Mr. T A. Ratliffe will occupy the house vacated by Dr. Strickland.

Mr. R L. Martin, of Pelzer, won the prize of $5.00 offered by the Evans Pharmacy for the largest watermelon produced from seed purchased from them. The melon weighed 581 pounds. Miss Montie Riley, of this city, who has been epending some time in Walhalla, has returned home, and was accompanied by Miss Roxy Reid of that place, who will spend several weeks in Anderson.

At a meeting of the Board of Trade

Monday afternoon the old officers were re-elected to serve another year, as follows: President, J. M. Sullivan; Vice-President, J. L. Tribble; Secretary, D. A. Led-

Mr. Wm P. Huff has discovered gold Piedmont. Panning has been attended with such successful results that parties interested think of putting in improved machinery at once. We told you some time ago that that new cotton mill was an assured fact. Several other big enterprises will soon develop, too. Keep your eye on Anderson the best and most prosperous town or show that abundant grain crops will be realized. The reports from the cotton crop are not so encouraging, and we must say that this is also an encouraging sign.

You will take notice that the Summons the cotton crop, the fruit crop, and other crops, are either fair or better than fair, the first being estimated conservatively at 395,000,000 bushels, worth about $200,
Tow will take notice that the Summons the cotton crop, the cotton crop, the fruit crop, and other crops, are either fair or better than fair, the first being estimated conservatively at 395,000,000 bushels, worth about $200,
Tow will take notice that the Summons the cotton crop, the cotton crop, the cotton crop, the cotton crop, the fruit crop, and other crops, are either fair or better than fair, the first being estimated conservatively at 395,000,000 bushels, worth about $200,
BONHAM & WATKINS, Plaintills' Attorney at 395,000,000 bushels, worth about $200, Output for the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for the clerk of the Court of Court of Common Pleas for the clerk of the Court of Court city in South Carolina.

The stock of goods of Kay & Baker was sold at auction this morning to Mr. Ab. Kay for $2,650.

A series of meetings will begin at Ebenezer Church, South Anderson Circuit, on next Monday night, September 2nd. The pastor will be assisted by Roy. J. W.

to take his bed on account of a severe attack of dysentery, which gradually grew worse until inflammation of the bowels set in, which caused his death. Dr. Nardin, the attending physician, exhausted all of his skill and knowledge in attempting to relieve the sufferer, and did Dr. W. S. Weyman, who has been practicing veterinary surgery in Greenville for the past few months, has been elected to fill the chair of veterinary science in Clemson College. This is a new department at Clemson, the Board having created it at While A. C. Williams and family, who

Mr. Barr was 63 years old, and was a son of Leroy Barr, deceased, who was a well known citizen of this County in his reside near Piedmont, were asleep a few nights ago, a burglar raised a window, entered Mr. Williams' room procured $30 from his pocket and made his escape without disturbing any member of the family. There is no clue as to the burglar. well known citizen of this County in his day. He was born in this city, and spent his boyhood days in the Brushy Creek section of the County, where his parents settled after they left Anderson. In his young manhood he returned to Anderson, and for a number of years clerked in the stores of our venerable citizens, Messrs. S. Bleckley and B. F. Crayton. He served throughout the war, having enlisted in the Palmetto Riflemen, and was a brave soldier. Since the war and up to two or three years ago he has been con-

That man Minor, the genial proprietor of the famous Ten Cent Store, says be has outgrown his pantaloons, and has secured larger quarters. After next Monday he will occupy the storeroom vacated by Brownlee & Vandiers, next door to the Sulliyan Hardware Co. Read his new advertisement.

On Monday, September 9th. Miss Lenora C. Hubbard will open a limited school, which she will continue until the Graded School opens. Pupils who are deficient in any study will find this an excellent opportunity to make up the deficiency so as to enter a higher grade in the Graded School. Read her advertisement.

Here are some "don'ts" that you don't want to forget: If you don't like your boarding house food, don't eat it. If you don't like the hat you wear, don't wear it. If you don't like your neighbor, let him alone. If you don't like the town you live in, get out. If you don't like to subscribe for your home paper, don't borrow or steal your neighbor's.

There has been an abundance of rain during the past week—in fact, for cotton and crops planted on lowlands there has been more than needed. Crops are generally in fine shape, and fodder, where not already being pulled, will soon be ready for gathering (otton is shedding in many state but the expense still in few condigathering Cotton is shedding in many fields, but the crop is still in fair condi-tion. Turnips, of which there has been a large acreage planted, are coming up nicely.

The managers of the recent election will very probably not receive any pay for their services.

Mrs. H. T. Bremer and children, of Charleston, are visiting her parents near this city.

Mrs. H. H. Watkins returned from the mountains yesterday greatly benefited by the trip.

Next Friday there will be a festival at the storeroom recently occupied by G M. Tolly, on Granite Row, for the benefit of the Anderson Cornet Band. Both dinner and Supper will be served at very reasonable prices. The members of the Band owe a balance on their instruments, and the money realized will go to pay that debt. The boys deserve a liberal patronage, and we hope they will receive it, as a good Band is an acquisition to any town.

A large party of Andersonians took advantage of the low rates to Boston and have gone North to seek a little pleasure and buy goods for the fall and winter trade. The following are some of the party: Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Brown, Mrs. Latimer, Mr. A. Lesser, Mrs. M. Lesser, Miss Lizzie Williams, Mr. R. C. Laughlin, Mrs. Wm. Laughlin, Mr. R. C. Webb, Mr. W. R. Hubbard Mr. R. S. Hill, Mr. M. Satire, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reed.

persons have professed conversion.

Mrs. Barbara Rice Dean, mother of Messrs. Joel T. and E. B. Rice, of Belton, died at her home in that village Tuesday morning, after a brief illness, in the 76th year of her ago. Mrs. Dean was a sister of the late Kenon Breazeale, E-q, and was born and reared in this County. She was twice married, and by her first marriage three sons survive. She had long been a faithful member of the Baptist Church, and was most highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends and relatives, all of whom will be pained to hear of her death. Her remains were buried at Belton this mornbilities and a faithfulness in the discharge of those duties which counted no sacrifice too great for the development of those confided to its care, it has for a quarter of a century withstood the fads and fancies in education, and has secured for itself an enviable reputation as a first class school for boys and young men. Those who have sons to educate would do well to patronize this institution.

paid in. Not more than 30 per cent. of the remainder can be called for before next summer, and the remaining 50 per cent will not be called for before the fall of 1896 Edgefield Chronicle: "Miss Lucy Brown, one of Auderson's charming and beautiful daughters, is on a visit to her relatives, Mr. J. B Haltiwanger and family." Mr. Hill and Mr. Fretwell were appointed on a committee to solicit subscriptions

This prominent Baptist divine died aud denly at his home near Honea Path last Thursday afternoon, and the announcement was a great shock to his many friends throughout this section. The following notice of his death is clipped from the Greenville Mountaineer of the 24th inst: "The news of the sudden death of Rev A. C. Stepp will carry sorrow to many households in Greenville and adjoining Counties. He had been to Glenn Springs Counties. He had been to Gienn Springs recently for his health, but was not much improved by the vi-it, and while there was anxiety among his friends no one expected that death was so near. Thursday afternoon he passed away quite suddenly at Honea Path, where he had been living shipped at Ruhama Sunday. We have not had our protracted meeting for several years. Mr. Stepp was born just across the line in North Carolina, but at Ruhama yet

A most enjoyable singing was given Sat was raised in the upper section of Green-ville County. He was educated at Mossy Creek, Tenn, and in early life entered the Baptist ministry. He taught school for a number of years, and finally settled in the Bigby, of Hones Path.

Rev. Job. Yeargin preached his first sermon at Shiloh Church last Sunday night to a large and attentive congregation.

Mr. Claude Tribb'e, a handsome and talented young man of Lavonia, Ga, vistalented young man of Lavonia, Ga, vistalente lower portion of Greenville County, where he married and raised a large family. He served Churches in Laurens, Greenville and Anderson Counties, and his preaching was always clear, pointed and logical. He was endowed with unusual gifts in public speaking, and was a writer of uncommon vigor and acuteness. In whatever sphere he moved, Mr. Stepp was always known and recognized as a man of strong convictions, which he was ready to defend with ability and zeal. He took an active part in politics now and then, and represented this County in the Legislature some years to the convention which nominated Hamp-

Society Happenings.

Our new friends, Misses Avery and Mobley, of Rock Hill, left us last week, after having spent a short time with friends in the suburbs of the city.

Miss Maggie Hudgens, of Honea Path.

is visiting Miss Sue Whitefield.

ton, making the opening prayer on the occasion.'

ago. He frequently attended political conventions, and in 1876 he was a delegate with music from the pupils and from a Brass Band. It is desired that we have a picnic supper on the campus; therefore all at three-fourths of a billion ($750,000,000.) are invited who will bring well filled bas-Miss Melette Thornley, of Pickens, is in the city visiting relatives.

daughters whose welfare had always been

Editor of Intelligencer: Please allow me space in your columns to express my hole in the ground. Both of Mr. Sulli-van's speeches were simply personal attacks on me and vague charges against the Conservative party, and Mr. Prince's over there

Miss Jodie Reeder, of Lavonia, Ga

the 20th, a fine girl.
Miss Lucia Profilit, of Hartwell, wor

among the highest objects of his ambi

The News from Honea Path

Death of Mr. Barr.

The announcement of the death of Mr

William F. Barr, which occurred at his home in this city Tuesday morning at 3 o'clock, was a great shock to his numorous friends and acquaintances, many of whom did not know that he was seriously ill. About two weeks ago he was forced to take his bed on account of a severe not give up hope until Monday morning, when he saw that death was inevitable.

two or three years ago he has been continuously engaged in merchandising in this city. In the spring of last year he was appointed Postmaster for Anderson, and was a most efficient and accommodation.

dating official.

Mr. Barr possessed a most genial, clever disposition, and was very popular with all of his friends and acquaintances. For more than thirty years he was a faithful and consistent member of the Presbyterian Church. In 1869 he married Miss Lillie Hubbard, who preceded him to the Presbyterian Churchyard with the hon-

Death of Col. John T. Sloan, Sr.

The Columbia State of the 23rd inst

ors of that ancient order.

The weather is fearfully hot. Good showers continue to fall in places. The highest estimate on the cotton is two thirds of a crop.

Where outs were killed in the spring the land was universally planted in corn, and every stream is lined with it also, and as crops the hand all grown it. fine as the land will grow it. This means bread and meat.

The price of cotton continues to advance which means money, does it not seem as if the eve of better times are approaching, for which we are all thankful? The tight places that we were in in '94 may be referred to in future years by most all business men at least.

The Honea Path High School will open its session on September 2nd, with a speech from Prof. Craighead, of Clemson fame. Prof. Harper desires that all the patrons be present if possible on that day.
Our school will open with the most flattering prospect for years. Prof. J. C. Harper comes as well recommended as a man could be. His assistants, Misses Lucy Gambrell and Nannie Harkness, need no re-commendation, as they are both well known here, by almost every one. The Professor not only has confidence in himself, but relying on the past records of his two assistants, goes so far as to guarantee satisfaction when pupils attend regularly. If you have a blockhead send him, too, and he does not learn charge it up to the

The interest in stock raising in this com munity has become so general, that a company has been formed and a charter will be applied for, for the "Honea Path Colt Show Association," with the following officers: President, J. C. Milford; Vica-President, Dr. J. F. Shirley; Secretary, L. A. Brock; Executive Committee, C. E. Harper, J. C. Milford, G. M. Greer, R. M. Shirley, B. F. Gassaway, L. M. Wilson and W. J. Donald. Arrangements are being made to have a grand rally of all the colts from the four adjoining counties of Anmunity has become so general, that a grave about five years ago. Four daughters and two sons are left to cherish the memory of a most devoted and affectionate father, and in their sore bereavement they have the sympathy of our whole from the four adjoining countles of Anderson, Abbeville, Greenville and Laurens, people.

This morning at 11.30 o'clock, after appropriate funeral services in the Presbyterian Church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. N. H. Summerel, the members of Hiram Lodge, A. F. M., of which he was a member, laid his remains to rest in the on September 13th. Judges have been appointed and all colts will be given an equal chance for exhibition. Everybody, and stock raisers especially, are earnestly requested to come and bring all the colts in their neighborhood, from the poorest scrub to the finest stock. Arrangements scrub to the finest stock. Arrangements will be made to care for them by committee. Please notify C. E. Harper a few days beforehand. The protracted meeting in the Presbyterian Church that is being conducted by Dr. McBryde is being well attended. The Doctor's sermons are plain and pointed, so that all that hear can understand. Services last only one hour, and still some

The Columbia State of the 23rd inst, contained the following notice of the death of a venerable citizen who was well known and most highly esteemed by the older citizens of this section:

"At the ripe old age of 84, Col. John T. Sloan, Sr., a venerable and highly respected citizen, passed peacefully away at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. His last illness began some ten days ago, and although there was at one time an apparent improvement in his condition, he was too feeble to withstand the shock of illness and so passed away full of years and honors. Services last only one hour, and still some cannot spare the time to go.

The whole up-country will join us in mourning for the Rev. A. C. Stepp, whose death occurred on Thursday evening at the home of J. G. Pitts, in Laurens County, while conducting a meeting at Poplar Springs Church. He was the founder of the church at the country of the country o many churches, including the church at this place. He seemed until about three feeble to withstand the shock of illness and so passed away full of years and honors.

"Col. Sloan was born near Old Pendleton, on Cane Creek, May 24, 1811. He graduated from the South Carolina College in 1829, standing very high in a large class. Only two of his class survive him—Mr. Porcher, of the low country, and Mr. Lyles, of Fairfield, being the two.

"Col. Sloan was elected clerk of the House of Representatives in 1854. He was re-elected continually after the war and continued to be clerk until the Republicans came into power in 1868.

"To 1876 he was again elected clerk and was re-elected continually after the war and continued to be clerk until the Republicans came into power in 1868.

"In 1876 he was again elected clerk and continued in office till 1890, when he was not a candidate for re election.

"Col. Sloan married Miss Benson, of Pendleton, who died before him on December 18, 1889, leaving surviving her two daughters, Misses Alice and Eliza Sloan, and six sons, Sanator John T. Sloan, of this cluty, David B. Sloan, of Fort Hill, Dr. Henry M. Sloan, of Edgefield, Dr. Gourdin Sloan, of Horry. Barnard C. Sloan, of Schenectady, N. Y., 20 grandchildren and four great grandchildren. All four of the great grandchildren live in Anderson.

"There were born to Col. and Mrs. Sloan is convention of 1865, and of the famous Wallace House. On the fiftleth anniversary of his marriage the House of Represented Col.

"The state of the Neas again elected clerk and continued in office till 1890, when he was into an and six sons, Spantor John T. Sloan, of this cluty, David B. Sloan, of Fort Hill, Dr. Henry M. Sloan, of Edgefield, Dr. Gourdin Sloan, of Horry. Barnard C. Sloan, of Schenectady, N. Y., 20 grandchildren and four great grandchildren. All four of the great grandchildren in the constitutional Convention of the famous Wallace House. On the fiftleth anniversary of his marriage the House of Representatives then in session presented Col.

Sloan, of Horry, Barnard C. Sloan, of Schenectady, N. Y., 20 grandchildren and four great grandchildren. All four of the great grandchildren live in Anderson.

"There were born to Col. and Mrs. Sloan is treed to the second its children—eight of whom survive.

"Col. Sloan was the clerk of the Secondary of Convention, of the Constitutional Convention of 1865, and of the famous Wallace House. On the fiftieth anniversary of his marriage the House of Representatives, then in session, presented Col. Sloan with a handsome gold watch and chain, appropriately engraved, as a testimonial of his long and faithful service as a public officer. He was a member of the Legislature from Pendleton district before the war, his grandfather being one of the Harvy, a little son of Mr. Murphy Stacks, received a fall last week, which Legislature from Pendleton district before the war, his grandfather being one of the earliest Senators from Pendleton district.

'He was at one time a man of large means, his faith in the Confederate cause invest largely in Confederate it was not his neck that was broken, as led him to invest largely in Confederate bonds, selling lands and other property to do so. He moved to Columbia in 1865 to educate his family and continuously resided here since

Mr. Banister Allen, from Anderson, "He was quartermaster general of the State during the war and just before the spent last Saturday night and Sunday with relatives near this place.
Mr. and Mrs. H. J. McKinney are off on city was destroyed by Sherman he succeeded in removing others, saving many valuable State records. He was a member of Governor Manning's staff before the war.

Mr. Lucian Howard spent a few days "Col. Sloan, in the course of his long life, had made numbers of friends all over round about here last week. His many friends were glad to see him.

Mr. W. R. Evans returned last Friday night, after an absence of several days. South Carolina. His long service in the House of Representatives brought him in frequent contact with many of the best frequent contact with many of the best minds of the State. His knowledge of the ville and did not reach his destination. political history of the State, thus derived made him useful as a public officer and very entertaining in conversation. Many several days. Hope he will have a pleas-very entertaining in conversation. Many of his personal recollections would form valuable contributions to the history of the times in which he lived. Coll. Slosn was a cepable officer and s good citizen. He was of a kindly disposition, ready at all times to do for others. His declining years were made bright by the consciousness of a well sport life and Marvin. Mrs. Hanks, of Iva, left last Saturday for Marvin. Mrs. Hanks, will spond several Marvin Mrs. Hanks will spend several the consciousness of a well spent life, and by the affectionate offices of the sons and weeks up there.

Mr. S A. Morgan's saw mill is now located at the old stand near Mr. W. A. Hall's. Spurgeon says he has been mak-Hall's. Spurgeon says he has been hisk-ing things lively, having sawed about 40,-000 feet of lumber during the past three weeks. He will finish where he is this week, and will move to Mr. Thompson Burriss'. Mr. W. T. McGee has been busy, too, just now. His mill is at home sawing for himself and his neighbors, and cetting ready to go down to Mrs. Scott's. thanks to my friend of the Advocate for his high and very disinterested encomi-ums on my speech in his issue of the 19th getting ready to go down to Mrs. Scott's. Several of the farmers on that side a e wanting lumber for repairs, &c., but Mr, inst., and to express my deep regret that he allowed so much error and inaccuracy to be mixed up with his compliments. We are sure that all who know his high S S. will be contented with nothing but a neat little cottage, and some of his friends say it will be completed on short notice, regard for truth, will readily exonerate him from all responsibility in the matter, and conclude that it was a mere lapsus and that a pair of bright eyes are going to keep house for him.

Mr. James Kelly has bought a ginning outfit from Rev. J. T. Morgan, and will locate at the Cross Roads at Mr. Wanslow's, pennea or misprint of his devil, (who is usually regarded as the father of such things), for surely my learned friend well knows, with all who were present, that Messrs. Sullivan and Prince did not where he will be pleased to serve his friends. I bespeak for him a liberal patmeet nor answer my arguments, but shied around them like a mule avoids a The planters are all busy this week with their fodder. Those who pulled last week had it damaged more or less by rain. Wanted, all the readers of the INTELLI-GENCER to know that "Ernest" has learned how to read. They say he was just backed up against a tree, and told to read or rack, and he said he guess he could read, and he did and he does.

H.

Corner Dots.

ville Monday on business.

Miss Leila Teasley left last Tuesday for Hartwell on a visit to her grandfather's.

Miss Jodie Reeder, of Lavonis, Ga, spent Saturday night and Sanday with her sister, Mrs. S. E. Holland, of this place. We are always glad to see Miss Jodie. Come again and stay longer.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Will. Massey, on Wiss Kate Stevenson, who has been on a visit to her uncle, Mr. W. M. Ranson, has returned home. returned home. "Jack" seems quite liberal with his apples from the way he has been sending them to the young ladies.

Two of our boys are badly smitten on some of the Lowndesville girls. What has urday night at the residence of Mr. J. H.
Little in honor of Misses Robinson and Bigby, of Hones Path.

Some of the Flowledge and Bunk to say?

It is thought that Jess is learning the carpenter's trade, as he goes to the shop every Friday evening.

J. L. S. says that if the girls did not have teeth he would not be afraid of them.
Mr. Weston Sadler preached at Good the way from two to two and a half billion bushels, and the money value to the farmers is reckoned, including the fodder, Come up, Mr. Editor, and we will give you a hearty welcome. Yours truly,

Jos. C. Structure, this will go to the railroads and the mid-dlemen. The wheat crop, the cotton crop, Remaining in the Postoffice at Anderson, S. C., unclaimed for the week end-ing August 27, 1895:

son, S. C., and and the the state of the sing August 27, 1895;

Miss Cora Adger, J. N. Austin, E. M. Anderson, Miss Lelies Austin, Charles Banks, Mrs. Poley Baley, J. S. Banks, Sarah Banks, W. W. Ball, Sy Brown, Terrill Crawford, Hannah Davis, Janey Dacus, Miss Annie D. Davis, D. P. Douthy, Tommie Peighton, J. A. Fields, John Fields, Lula Hampton, W. H. Harrison, Ophelia Huff, W. O. Honnes, Miss Rosa Jackson, Miss Eliza Kay, Scene Linded, Mrs. Marven Smith, Miss Francis Reid, John M. Slopin, W. A. Sherod, Miss Maggie Thomson, Miss Sarah Williams, Lewis Williams, Mrs. Mollie Williams, William Woolbright. liams, William Woolbright. When called for please say advertised and mention date. One cent must be paid for each letter delivered. W. F. BARR, P. M.

Roll of merit for the month of August Bessie Cowan, 95; Elvira Pennell, 95' Ethel Broom, 95; Belle Martin, 94; Ger-trude Clinkscales, 94; Neta Pennell, 93; Ralph Pennell, 92; Reuben Clinkscales, 91; houn Posey, 90. LENA CAMPBELL, Teacher.

to become mothers. To such we point to a true friend in MOTHER'S RELIEF. which not only makes childbirth easy and painless, but leaves mother and child in a healthy and vige cous condition; restores the mother to her original beautiful form.

Price $1 per bottle; 3 bottles for $2.50,

For sale by druggists, or sent by express on receipt of price by

MOTHERS' RELIEF CO., 33 Peters St., Atlanta, Ga. For sale by Simpson & Son. 1

The Southern Railway has again arranged exceedingly cheap rates for occasion of the Knight's Templar Conclave, Boston, Mass., from August 26th to 30th, 1895 Tickets will be sold on August 23, 24 and 5 at rate of $25 00 round trip for individuals, and $22 00 round trip for parties of ten (10) traveling together from Atlanta, Augusta, Columbia, and intermediate points. Elegant through trains will be run. Another rare opportunity is offered Planos and Organs-The Powerful Magnet That draws our trade is Low Prices. We carry only the Pianos and Organs of reliable makes, and guarantee each instru-ment fully as represented. Finest new Pianos and Organs sold on monthly in-The C. A. Reed Music House, Mrs. C. R. Murray's school will open at Drox.

Don't buy your Sash, Doors and Blinds before getting prices from Sullivan Hardware Co. Skinned hams for sliceing at S. M.

Fowler's Best make of Grass Blades and Snaths can be found at Sullivan Hardware Co.'s Raw hides, rags, cotton, old iron, dog fennel, anything bought by S. M. Fowler. Imported Sardines at S. M. Fowler's. Go to Sullivan Hardware Co. for your Dynamite Fuse and Caps. They will sell you at rock bottom prices. Remember, I will buy any kind of goods brought to this market. S. M. Fowler.

Sullivan Hardware Co. have a full stock of Carbon and Oaken Rubber Belting at prices that cannot be duplicated. Pic nic cheese, made by a lady girl, at S. M. Fowler's. Drink Momaja Coffee, finest in the world, at S. M. Fowler's. TO RENT-A five room cottage. Ap-ply to J. S. Fowler.

Fresh lot of soda water made of Harris Lithia Water just received at J. F. Fant's Soda water made of Harris Lithia Water superior to all others. For sale at J. F. Grain, hoy, bran, cow feed, chicken feed, Momaja and Arbuckles roasted coffees at

S. M. Fowler's. Why drink sods water made from common water when you can get it made of Harris Lithia for the same money, at J. F. Fant's. To rent, a neat four room cottage. Apply FOR SALE-170 acres of Land, well improved. Will sell cheap. E. H. Vickery, Hartwell, Ga. Young Canaries for sale at $2,50 per pair. Apply at this office. 'Mosic is the link which binds earth to heaven. It strengthens faith, hightens hope and fills the heart with joy "Call at The C. A. Reed Music House and buy a Piano or Organ. WANTED!

OLD BRASS, ZINC and

COPPER, For which the Cash will be said. Aug 21 1895

NOTICE.

THE Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Anderson Cotton Mills will sheld in the Court House on TUESDAY, 7th SEPTEMBER next at 11 o'clock a m The Boareholders who cannot attend in person will please arrange to be represent ed by proxy, as it is specially desired to bave a quoru:n.
J. A. BROCK, Presiden'. Aug 14, 1895

NOTICE.

WILL be let to the lowest responsible On Saturday, August 31st, the repairing of the woodwork of Dunham's Bridge over Saluda River. Contractor will be required to give bond for double the amount of contract price. Plans and specifications made known on day of letting. W. P. SNELGROVE, Co. Sup.

FURMAN UNIVERSITY, Greenville, S. C. THE next Session will open September

25, 1895. Write for circulars, catalogues or for information about Courses of Instruction, Mess Hall, Boarding, &c.
Inquire about examination to be held by School Commissioner, August 23, for Schoolarship worth $50,
C, MANLY, D D., President,
Aug 7, 1895

Gin-Owners of Anderson County That the LLOYDS have authorized the reduction, and that I am now prepared to insure your Gin Property at rates from 25 to 33 per cent. Less

THE LLOYDS Are offering rates that are in the bounds of reason, and such that you can afford to carry jour own rates no longer. There fore, write or call on me for rates and full night to a large and attentive congregation.

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, COUNTY OF ANDERSON. COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

Mr. Claude Tribb'e, a handsome and talented young man of Lavonia, Ga, visited one of our fair ladies Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. A. B. Sullivan is spending a few days in Anderson with her sister, Mrs. Simpson.

— According to local chroniclers Mrs. Charlotte Stull, of Middleton, Conn., celebrated her eightieth birthday recently by walking eight miles in two hours.

— A trolley railroad running fifty miles along country highways and connecting six Indiana towns with Chicago, is soon to be built. It will be the longest trolley read in Indiana and one of the longest in the country.

— The most magnificent corn crop ever seen in any country on earth is, from all accounts, soon to be gathered in this action, of which the way from two to two and a half billion bushels, and the money value to the Brass Band. It is desired that we have a Brass Band. It is desired that we have a large of the way from two to two and a half billion bushels, and the money value to the farmers is reckoned, including the fodder, and supplant.

Dated August 21st, A. D. 1895.

BONHAM & WATKINS,

Plaintiffs' Attorneys, Anderson, S. C.

[SEAL] JNO. C. WATKINS, C. C. C. P.

THE BOTTOM HAS FALLEN

PRICES SUMMER GOODS Mothers in 'Frouble This is the condition of those expecting to become mothers. To such we point to

ON ALL OF OUR

Summer Clothing!

From now until Sept. 1st you can buy them at your own price. Don't be

> But to cut a long story short, hold your CASH until you see us and get prices.

Our Bargain Counters are gold dollars at ninety

COME AND SEE,

THE -

TRUNKS, VALISES, &c.,

IS always heavy at this season, when Colleges and Schools will soon open, and so many young people will be preparing to leave home. We have anticipated this

In all styles and prices, from the cheap packers up to the finer grades, and if you are needing anything in this line and will call to see us, we think we can make it to your advantage to-

TRADE WITH US.

If not, we will not ask you to do so. Call to see us when you are

Yours very truly,

C. F. JONES & CO.

Biggest Kind of

BARGAINS

-IN ALL-

Silks for Waist,

Jaconetts.

Lawns, of all descriptions,

Cotton Crepons.

Zephyr Plissee.

Organdies,

Fans, Millinery, and all other

Yours truly,

Summer Goods.

U. E. SEYBT.

P. S.—All Slippers and Oxford Ties U. E. S. must go.

THE DEMAND FOR NEW SPRING GOODS. New Styles. New Prices.

COME AND SEE!

All who Buy from Us so home feeling happy & Pleased.

New Dress Goods, New Stiller, New Wool Delaine, N:w Prints. New Chambray. Hew Ginghams, New Lawns, New Silks, New Crepons, New Winsor Ties, New Gloves, New Millinery, New Laces, New Embroidery, New Aprons.

Fresh arrival of Shoes

Every pair warranted as represented.

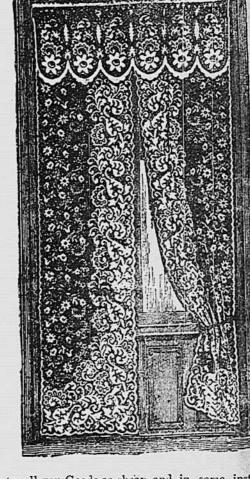

— WE HAVE — Ladies and Gents Underwear, Collars and Cuffs.

Read our Offer----Given away Free of Charce

To every purchaser who trades $3.00 and upwards we will present, free of charge, one handsome CUT GLASS HALF-GALLON WATER PITCHER, which would be an ornament to any table. OFFER NO. 2.

To every one who trades $5.00 and upwards we will present, free o charge, one handsome CUT GLASS WATER SET, which consists of on glass Tray, one handsome Pitcher and six Goblets-all fit for a king o

LACI

Remember, we promise to sell you Goods as cheap and, in some instan ces cheaper, than can be had elsewhere. You need not buy all one time Call for one of our cards and we will punch the amount you trade. Remember, we make no extra charge for our goods. The loss is ours. Remember our place of business-UNDER MASONIC TEMPLE.

LESSER & CO.

first speech was a tissue of generalities, not at all conspicuously glittering, wisely keeping out of my reach 'till assured of safety. I hope my usually courteous and obliging friend will make the necessary correction.

If. M. PRINCE. they will be backed by the city and county of Anderson. It is contemplated that the mill will be run by electricity, and that it will begin to pay dividends after the demand, and have prepared our-GIN-HOUSE INSURANCE Mr. W. M. Sherard and family are visit ing relatives in the Corner.
Mr. W. T. A. Sherard went to Anderson queen's table. Holland News. selves. We have just received -As you didn't hear from this part of the INSURANCE rates on Gin Property Saturday on business.
Miss Hanora Cuddy and Howe Ligon were visiting friends in Moffattsville Thurscountry last week I thought I would drop tory, so much so that the dance has hardly Death of Rev. A. C. Stepp. Well, we have had plenty of rain in the paid for the lights, but I have for some day.
Miss Eleanor Cochran, one of Anderson's past week, and the farmers are very busy with their fodder. ime been working to secure a-An Elegant Line of Trunks, most beautiful and charming young ladies, is the guest of Miss Ella Sherard. REDUCTION OF RATES, Miss Kate Fleming has returned home after spending several weeks in Georgia with relatives and friends, and she has made one poor boy's heart rejpics. He had about decided she was going to stay

Mr. W. T. A. Sherard went to Lowndes-And I am now in a position to announce

Than any other Agency in Anderson Coun-

M. M. MATTISON, Manager, Anderson, S. C.

To the Defendant, Cornelius R. Reddy:
You will take notice that the Summons and Complaint in this action are filed in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for Anderson County, S. C., at Anderson Court House,